Christmas 2011

How Christ Saves Santa Claus!

Santa Claus: Hey man, what are you doing on my route. I'm bringing gifts to good boys and girls, grown ones too. Why are you here?

Christ: I'm here to make sure they know the true meaning of Christmas-- Me.

Santa Claus: Isn't the true meaning of Christmas giving gifts and not being naughty, but good and nice.

Christ: Nope. It's about being re-born again.

Santa Claus: What do you mean being born again? I'm grown, how do you get reborn again? It's not just about being good and not naughty?

Christ: No, it doesn't mean just being good and nice. It means all have sinned and the price for your sin is death. That's the bad news.

Santa Claus: What's the good news?

Christ: I died for you and took the penalty while you are saved through faith. Is there anything that is keeping you from trusting in me as your Savior.

Santa Claus: Well, no. If it's that easy, then let me be saved right now.

Christ: Then say this prayer with me-- "Dear God, I know I'm a sinner. I believe you died for me. I trust you, Christ, as my savior. Thank you for forgiving me and providing me everlasting life. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Santa Claus: It was so simple to do. May anyone become save?

Christ: Yes, and here are a few booklets to handout when you start sharing the good news with others.

Santa Claus: Thanks and I feel like a new man. I will surely share this good news with everyone who is willing to listen. Well, go about what you were doing and I'll see you in eternity.

Christ: Go in peace, my brother.

Merry Christmas from
