What Can Be Done About This?

Without soldiers on the front line like Living Stones and the many other non-profits, churches, and community organizations who care for families, there are no successes. Our role is to build community partnerships with like-minded individuals who want positive changes for families.

There are three types of individuals

- Those that watch things happen
- Those that make things happen
- and Those that say 'What happened!'

WHICH ARE YOU?

Our programs are so necessary and are they enough? NO. Do we need more organizations who are working on behalf of families? YES. It may not be enough, but it's a start and we must work for these positive changes to continue to restore and improve relationships for families.

Do not missed out on the opportunity to partner with us, to share your successes with those less fortunate, and to mentor/facilitate, educate, and be an example for fathers, mothers, and children.

Sincerely,

Gary Montgomery
